

The BCCMA & Rockit Boy Entertainment present the BCCMA Hall of Fame Show

Several Industry & Country music makers will be honoured with a Hall of Fame Induction this Spring at the B.C. Country Music Association (BCCMA) Hall of Fame show in Langley.

The BCCMA is proud to announce its 2016 Hall of Fame inductees:
Red Robinson, Ray Ramsay, Denny Eddy, Laurie Thain, Mike Norman, Farmer's Daughter, Gerry Leiske, Tammy Ray, Redd Volkaert and John McLaughlin.

The BCCMA, with Rockit Boy Entertainment, is taking an exciting approach to the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony with its presentation of the BCCMA Hall of Fame Show April 10th, 2016 at Langley, B.C.'s Summit Theatre in the Cascades Casino (20393 Fraser Hwy Langley, B.C.) The doors open at 1 p.m. and the show starts at 2 p.m.

The Hall of Fame Show will feature performances by Denny Eddy, Laurie Thain, Farmer's Daughter, Tammy Ray, Jess Lee and more.

This year marks the 30th year since the first induction of Ray McAuley into the BCCMA Hall of Fame - the perfect time to bring together the past and the present.

Support of this show not only pays tribute to these invaluable champions of B.C. Country Music history, but also gives back to help the BC Country Music Association educate the country musicians industry builders of tomorrow.

Tickets for the BCCMA Hall of Fame Show are on sale now, by calling Cascades Casino Guest Services at 604-530-2211 (for floor seats) or online at Ticketweb.ca for balcony seats. All tickets are $25 (plus $4.50 fees) This is a 19+ show.

Media Contact:
Linda Corscadden
Vice-president, BCCMA 604-533-5088
linda@bccountry.com