

BCCMA e-NEWSLETTER – JANUARY 2017

Hello Everyone,

Welcome to our January 2017 Newsletter.

As usual, we'd like to extend big 'thank you' to all our sponsors, supporters, friends, members and fans.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to our first Newsletter of 2017. The BCCMA Directors would like to take this opportunity to wish all our members health, happiness and much success in the coming year!

This is the time of year when most of us reflect on the last 12 months and remember all the events that happened throughout the year. If you didn't reach some of your goals, write them down and try again this year. Make this year, your year to accomplish what you set out to do. You are in control of your journey, so write your journey!

On Sunday, February 19th, we will hold our Annual General Meeting in Langley. The BCCMA is stronger than ever. We are looking to the future and what we can do to support, build and launch you, the membership, to becoming everything you were meant to be. Please make a point to attend the meeting. This is where your voice is heard and you get to vote for the Board of Directors for 2017.

Myself and the Board of Directors look forward to seeing you at the AGM and wish you all the best in 2017. Happy New Year!

Linda Corcadden
President, BCCMA

CREATIVE BC AND BC MUSIC FUND

The Province of British Columbia and Creative BC announced the allocation of $3.8 million from the BC Music Fund with the opening of three new funding programs on Thursday Dec. 15th

Eligible applicants for the Industry Initiatives and the Research programs include industry associations and business collaborations. Applications for these two programs will be accepted on a rolling intake until funds have been allocated.

From January through March 2017, the BC Music Fund will launch additional programs to support B.C.'s diverse music industry. The fund will support seven programs, including Sound Recording, Live Music, Industry Initiatives, Research, Careers of B.C. Artists, Music Company Development, and Innovation.

The BC Music Fund is hosting a series of public regional-outreach meetings to share information about new programs and build relationships with music industry partners throughout British Columbia. Meetings will be held in Victoria, Nanaimo, Kelowna, Prince George, Smithers, Nelson and Merritt in January and February 2017.

ARTIST NEWS

CHAD BROWNLEE

Chad Brownlee is celebrating the end of 2016 with another Top 10 track, as his current single "Somethin' We Shouldn't Do" cracked the coveted top position on BDS Country charts, making Brownlee the 2nd Top Charting Canadian on the BDS Country charts as of December 19. Brownlee enjoyed a total of three Top 10 singles throughout 2016, including "Hearts On Fire" and "I Hate You For It," all from his album Hearts On Fire released earlier this year.

He will kick off 2017 by teaming up with Tim Hicks for 8 co-headlining tour dates across Western Canada, as Brownlee's "Heart on Fire Tour" collides with Hicks' "Shake These Walls Tour." The star duo will open the western run on January 6 in Kelowna, and will play dates in Vancouver, Fort McMurray, Saskatoon, Calgary, Edmonton and Winnipeg before artists continue with independent tour dates.

ROBYN AND RYLEIGH

Robyn and Ryleigh will be ringing in 2017 as featured performers at Fraser Valley First Night Celebration at the Tradex complex in Abbotsford. The family friendly event starts at 5 pm, with R + R and band playing two shows beginning at 9 pm. The girls will also be host MC's for the event.

On Sat Jan 21st, R + R will be guest performers and panelists at a songwriter's workshop in Penticton at the Sandman Hotel. The event is being presented as part of the 2017 BC TalentQuest.

RAQUEL COLE

Raquel Cole signed with William Morris Endeavor out of Nashville this August; and in October, she opened for Brothers Osborne in London, ON at the London Concert Theatre. She also performed at the 93.7 JRFm's Fun Day at the Langley Events Centre supporting their Basics For Babies charity. Other artists who came out to show their support included Madeline Merlo, Aaron Pritchett, Dan Davidson, and the Washboard Union.

BECCA HESS

Becca Hess has received rave reviews for her current single "Mountain Child", none she is more excited for than her 3 ACMA Award nominations. "Mountain Child" is up for Song of the Year and Video of the Year, and Becca is honoured to be up for Female Artist of the Year!

After returning from an industry week at the 2016 Whistler Film Fest, Becca is pitching new music to LA music supervisors including Sam Diaz of CBS and Tony Scudellari of Sony Music Television for placement in TV and film. Heading back into the studio in February, Becca will record a brand new full length album with award winning producers, Tom and Carly McKillip. Staying true to her classic influences and rootsy soulful sound, Becca Hess' sophomore album is sure to be one to watch for in 2017.

BEN KCLICK

"Happy New Year! I hope you all had a fantastic holiday season! I'm looking forward to seeing everyone in the new year! There will be new music and a new show in 2017! Can't wait to see you all soon!" - BK

Ben Klick is currently writing singles for releases in the new year! Teaming up with Nashville based producing duo, Clay Krasner and RyLee Madison of 7-17 Music, there are some very cool new sounds on the horizon! In between writing sessions, the band is in the rehearsal studio creating a new show for the new year. This means new music, tighter arrangements, and more energy! Keep posted to the official website (www.benklick.com) for tour date details!

January 5, 2017 - Big White Ski Resort (The Globe)

January 13, 2017 - Okanagan College presents: "North of Nashville"

MADELINE MERLO

Madeline Merlo recently partnered with Urban Barn and Covenant House for their "Blanket the Country in Warmth" campaign. She performed at the shelter singing her newly released, heartfelt rendition of "White Christmas", along with her latest single "War Paint", an impactful track meant to help lift up anyone who is struggling with something difficult.

TWIN KENNEDY

Twin Kennedy has been celebrating the holiday season all month, and performed two benefit concerts in Nashville, Tenn. On December 5th they performed at the Canadian Standoff Show at The Country, where all the proceeds benefited The Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee East Wildfires Fund; and on December 15th they performed at the Bibb-White Bluff Civic Centre, where the admission was free with the donation of an unwrapped toy for the White Bluff Fire Department Troy Drive and/or a pet food donation for Last Chance Pet Rescue.

GEORGE WOLF

George Wolf and the Snowy Mountain Boys share George's original good ole country Christmas song, western swing style. We are so proud to depute its release just in time for Christmas. Thanks guys for joining us at the Hubcast Cabin. Merry Christmas!!
