AGM 2014: The BCCMA Moves Forward With Renewed Vigor

Langley B.C. March 16, 2014: The British Columbia Country Music Association posted encouraging attendance numbers at this year's Annual General Meeting held in Langley today, signaling the continuation of a trending renewal that began with the election of a mostly new Board of Directors at last year's meeting.

Of that nine-member Board, only four director positions were up for renewal this year. The newly appointed directors are Linda Corscadden, Geoff Dueck, Soren Lonngqvist and Cindy Giesbrecht. Directors continuing to serve are Brian Thate, Mike Sanyshyn, Tianna Lefebvre-Sanyshyn, Eamonn Morris and Rob Severyn.

The Board welcomed the appointment of Brian Thate as the Association's new President, and of Linda Corscadden as the new Vice-President, as well as the reappointment of Mike Sanyshyn and Tianna Lefebvre-Sanyshyn jointly as the Association's Secretary Treasurer.

The Board expressed its continued focus on attracting and developing younger musicians and artists within the Association's folds. At the same time it remains committed to supporting its more established talent, ensuring a vibrant and vital presence in the ever challenging business of Country Music, both in the Province of British Columbia and at the national and international levels.

Those interested in becoming members of the BCCMA are encouraged to email Linda at linda@bcccountry.com , call 604-533-5088 or visit our website at www.bcccountry.com.
